- FTC-Rail Cargo Hungaria have won six of their previous 12 matches against Budućnost, but Budućnost won the most recent one: 22:19 in the first leg of the DELO EHF Champions League play-offs last Sunday.

- Budućnost were 16:14 down with 13 minutes left but finished Sunday's match on an 8:3 run.

- FTC and Budućnost contested a CL knockout tie once before: in the semi-final in 2002, when FTC won 64:63 on aggregate (32:32 at home and 32:31 away).

- FTC are playing in the club's 21st CL season, Budućnost are in their 25th season.

- FTC finished the group phase in fourth position in group A, Budućnost ended in fifth in group B.

- The winners of this play-off tie will face either Györi Audi ETO KC or SG BBM Bietigheim in the quarter-final.

- Budućnost's Jovanka Radicevic led with seven goals in the first leg, raising her total for the season to 73.

- FTC's best scorers so far this CL season are Angela Malestein (with 67 goals) and Katrin Klujber (65).

- FTC reached the CL quarter-final for four straight seasons between 2016 and 2019 but they were eliminated in the main round in 2019/20.

- Budućnost can reach their eighth quarter-final in a row, but they have not qualified for the EHF FINAL4 since their last of four straight visits in 2017.

- Budućnost finished runners-up to Győr in 2014, won the title in the final against Larvik in 2015, and finished fourth in the following two years.

- Budućnost also won the CL title in 2012, before the introduction of the EHF FINAL4 format, and four players of the 2012 squad are still or again with the club: Bojana Popovic (now coach), Majda Mehmedovic, Radmila Petrovic, and Milena Raicevic (who is out with pregnancy).

- Popovic is one of just two players, alongside Ausra Fridrikas, who won the CL six times.

- Apart from Raicevic, Budućnost are also missing Andrea Lekic, who tore an Achilles tendon in December.

- Although they would have the shortest travel distance of all CL participants to get to the Papp Laszlo Sportarena in Budapest, FTC have failed to qualify for the annual EHF FINAL4 in their home town so far.

- FTC's squad includes one CL winner (Aniko Kovacsics with Győr in 2013 and 2014) and only four foreign players: Emily Bölk, Julia Behnke and Alicia Stolle from Germany, and Angela Malestein from Netherlands.

- Budućnost's squad includes two former world champions: Barbara Arenhart won with Brazil in 2013, Allison Pineau with France in 2017.
