Tamara Haggerty (NED)	10

- The MOTW in round 11 of the EHF Champions League Women 2023/24 travels to Hungary, where DVSC Schaeffler host Odense Håndbold in group A.
- Odense beat DVSC 33:30 at home in the reverse fixture in September, which was the first ever duel between the two teams.
- DVSC are coming off a crucial 27:21 away win at WHC Buducnost BEMAX last Sunday; that was their first victory in the CL group phase since October.
- Now ranked sixth with nine points, DVSC are six points clear of seventh-ranked Buducnost.
- DVSC can secure their spot in the play-offs this weekend if they earn more points against Odense than Buducnost do against Györi Audi ETO KC.
- The MOTW is Odense's second straight match against a team from Hungary: last week, Odense lost at home to Györ, 31:30.

Leading goal scorers Odense Håndbold:

Maren Aardahl (NOR)	55
Elma Halilcevic (DEN)	44
Dione Housheer (NED)	37
Ragnhild Valle Dahl (NOR)	32

14. Kozármisleny	12	281:378	3

- That was Odense's first defeat since losing against the same opponents in October and winning the following four matches.
- Despite last week's defeat, Odense are still in second place with 14 points, six behind leaders Györ.
- SG BBM Bietigheim, with 12 points, are Odense's closest challengers for the important second place, which guarantees direct entry into the quarter-finals.
- With 335 goals scored, Odense have the best attack in group A; in group B, only Metz Handball and Ikast Håndbold have scored more goals – 345 each.
- DVSC play their first CL season since 2010/11; Odense are in their fifth top-flight campaign.
- The Danish side reached the quarter-finals for the second time in the club's history in 2022/23, having previously achieved the feat in their debut CL season 2018/19; they lost to Györ on both occasions.
- The squad of DVSC consists mainly of Hungarian players; Swedish right back Elinore Johansson is the only Scandinavian player on their roster.
- Two Dutch internationals – Lios Abbingh and Kelly Vollebregt – left Odense last summer, but the squad still includes five players from the Netherlands.
- In the MOTW, they meet fellow Dutchwoman Tamara Haggerty, who joined DVSC last summer after playing one season in Denmark – with Horsens HK.
- Odense include six medal winners from the 2023 IHF World Championship last December: Maren Aardahl and Thale Rushfeldt Delia won silver with Norway; Althea Reinhardt, Mia Rej, Elma Halilcevic, and Mie Højlund won bronze with Denmark.
