

EHF Master Coach Course 2024

Target Group

- Coaches in domestic first league
- Coaches of younger age national teams
- Coaches of clubs participating in a European competition

All participants are only eligible if they fulfil the entry criteria mentioned in section “conditions”

Content

- Technique, tactics and methodology at the highest international level
- Game and training analysis at the highest international level
- Theory of coaching in handball including leadership and coaching strategies as well as communication strategies
- Sport psychological aspects as focusing on player and coach at the highest international level
- Competition and training management as well as stress and regeneration management at the highest international level
- Current sport-scientific knowledge from the disciplines of sports medicine, training science as well as other scientific application fields of handball
- Current trends in goalkeeper training
- Specialisation – way to choose the path

Dates/Structure

The course comprises a minimum of 160 teaching units, takes place from January 2024 to December 2024 and is divided into 3 on-site modules as well as individual self-learning before and between the on-site modules:

1. Module:	Men’s EHF EURO Main Round, Hamburg	15.01. – 21.01.2024
2. Module:	M20 EURO, Slovenia	08.07. – 13.07.2024
3. Module:	Women’s EHF EURO Main Round, Vienna	02.12. – 08.12.2024

Thesis

As an integral part of the EHF Master Coach Course, participants have to submit a written thesis in English language. The thesis has to be presented in front of a jury during the 3rd module of the course.

Experts

The team of experts consists of experienced EHF Experts, international top coaches, EHF Master coaches as well as experts in the field of sport management, sport medicine, sport psychology and communication.

Furthermore the active involvement of the participants forms an integral part of the course which enables all coaches to share and reflect on their abilities.

Costs

The total costs of the course amount to € 3500,- for the whole course and include:

- Course materials
- Access to EHF Events
- Transportation during the course hours
- Meals during the course (lunch, dinner)
- EHF Master Coach Title and EHF PRO License (given successful completion)

Course Leadership

EHF Sport & Games Services

Eva Reihofer – Assistance & Administration

João Monteiro – Educational Path & Sport Management

Noemi Szecsenyi – Grassroots Coordinator

Participants

The number of participants is limited to 25. The selection of eligible participants follows a first come first served principle, if the entry conditions are met.

Conditions

Following the EHF RINCK Convention coaches are only allowed to participate with

- a coaching education certificate on Level III according to the EHF RINCK Convention
- a minimum of 2 years experience since the completion of the Level III education (date on official coaching certificate will be taken into consideration)

Registration

Registration is possible until 10.11.2023 via:

https://accreditation.ehf.eu/Master_Coach_Course_2024

The EHF will only take complete applications into consideration.

The applicants might be subject of further procedural steps and will be informed accordingly by the EHF Office.